Sticks and Stones...

"Let your conversation be gracious and attractive so that you will have the right response for everyone." Colossians 4:6

We were all taught growing up as children that "sticks and stones may break our bones, but words will never hurt me." While we understand the principle of this saying, to not let words bother us. We know that the saying is not true, because words do hurt and while maybe not like a stone to the back of the head, they can cause lasting damage, especially when spoken by someone we love.

It is ok to admit that words hurt! But we can also find healing in Christ from the pain of open wounds left from a verbal attack. Maybe it was when you were a child or maybe it was yesterday, you don't have to live with the pain. Surrender that to Christ today! Also, be aware (as we all should) of your own words. We all say things we regret at times in our life, but seek wisdom before you speak and forgiveness after as the Spirit leads you.

LADIES IN FELLOWSHIP TOGETHER

This isn't a study on the power of positive thinking but about learning how God made your brain. Learn how setting your thoughts on Christ can create new patterns of thought that will change your life.

GOSPELER

*Turning Darkness into Light
One Conversation at a Time*

Could you share the gospel with another person? Would you know where to start? Do you even know what the gospel is? It's the Good News of Jesus, and a gospeler is simply someone who shares it with others.

Being a gospeler is not complicated. And the more you share Jesus, the easier it gets. Maybe you believe other people are better at sharing their faith and it is not your gift. Maybe you think you don't know the Bible well enough. Or you might say you haven't figured it all out yourself, so you aren't equipped to help anyone else. Whatever may be holding you back will be covered in this book, giving you the inspiration, guidance, and encouragement you need.

When the gospel is heard, accepted, and responded to, it's not just a cool story, it is a game-changer. And it can spread across the world—starting with one conversation you have with another.
