True Thankfulness

In 1 Thessalonians 5 Paul gives some instructions to the church so that they could be a thriving church that would glorify God. Verses 16 and 17 say "[16]Rejoice evermore. [17]Pray without ceasing." These two well-known verses are followed by "[18]In every thing give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you." Rejoice, pray, give thanks. We do not just do these things when things are going well. We should do them all the time.

When Paul says, "in every thing give thanks," he is not saying to be thankful for everything. There are plenty of bad things in our fallen world that we don't have to be thankful for. However, in the midst of any circumstance we find ourselves in this fallen world, good or bad, we can be thankful to God for who He is. God is the same regardless of our circumstances, and therefore He is worthy of our praise. It is for this reason that we can rejoice evermore, pray without ceasing, and give thanks in everything. That is true thankfulness.
