Simplifying Obedience

As Christians, we can overcomplicate the idea of living a life of obedience. We allow ourselves to get overwhelmed by the world or by our circumstances to the point where we make a poor choice. This is not to say that our circumstances are not significant, but we have a God who is greater than all of those things and through Him we can overcome them.

When it comes to a life of obedience, the apostle John simplifies this when he writes in 1 John 3:23 that we should believe on the name of Jesus and love one another. This echoes Jesus' words in Matthew 22:37-39 when He says to love God with all of our heart, soul, and mind and to love our neighbors as ourselves.

As we face the difficulties and temptation of our daily lives, let's not overcomplicate things. If we prioritize our faith in God and look to extend the love of God to others, we are well on our way to making good decisions and living a life of obedience.

GOSPELER

*Turning Darkness into Light
One Conversation at a Time*

Could you share the gospel with another person? Would you know where to start? Do you even know what the gospel is? It's the Good News of Jesus, and a gospeler is simply someone who shares it with others.

Being a gospeler is not complicated. And the more you share Jesus, the easier it gets. Maybe you believe other people are better at sharing their faith and it is not your gift. Maybe you think you don't know the Bible well enough. Or you might say you haven't figured it all out yourself, so you aren't equipped to help anyone else. Whatever may be holding you back will be covered in this book, giving you the inspiration, guidance, and encouragement you need.

When the gospel is heard, accepted, and responded to, it's not just a cool story, it is a game-changer. And it can spread across the world—starting with one conversation you have with another.
