a note from the pastor

He is still risen...

"...that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in the newness of life." (Romans 6:4)

Easter baskets are empty, new outfits are hung in the closet and the ham gravy is all but gone. We are one week after Easter Sunday and the truth that we must celebrate today is that he is still risen! Every day is Easter Sunday for those that know Christ personally.

We can live the "resurrected life" today and every day when we choose to trust in Christ as our savior fixing our eyes upon Him. When we realize that our identity is in Christ, not in what we do, we can enjoy every moment as an act of worship to Him. We are experiencing the fullness of life in Christ! Enjoy celebrating the resurrection today more than you did last week!

"Jesus said to her, 'Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to my Father; but go to my brethren and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, and to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdelene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that He had spoken these things to her."
