What a day that will be...

"We know that when He appears, we will be like Him because we will see Him as He is." (1 John 3:2 HCSB)

The mere thought of John's message is quite literally overwhelming! One day we will see Christ in His fullness and as followers of Christ we will be "like him." Now, this does not mean we will be "gods" because we were/ are created beings, but it means we will have a glorified body and mind. We will be at complete peace and void of any sin whatsoever. As the old hymn says, "What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall see."

I cannot imagine what that will be like, it is beyond my understanding, but an amazing reality for the church is that the unity with Christ and the Father is made possible today. Jesus prayed in John 17 that we would be "one with the Father as Jesus is one with the Father". We can walk in unity by the Holy Spirit practicing (if you will) for that glorious day when we will be completely transformed!
