The love of a Father

"As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him;" (Psalm 103:13)

Sometimes we don't think of our earthly fathers as "loving" but I believe there is nothing more supporting and encouraging to a child than the love and compassion of a father. I love what one author said about a father's love, "Like a shepherd, a father cares for his flock – feeding, protecting, leading, being available and having a watchful eye." Dads are the "shepherds" of the family. They are to provide an opportunity to their children to receive the same grace that we receive from our heavenly Father.

The passage in Psalm 103 is dealing with the forgiveness and mercy God shows us when he remembers our "frame" or "form", which was from dust. In the same way a dad remembers his children as fragile and valuable, so he shows them mercy rather than wrath. Maybe you didn't have a dad that showed much compassion or grace. Remember that your Heavenly Father is perfect and holy. He will always share the grace and love we need. Enjoy the compassion God is showing you today!
