

But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Granted access...

"For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father." (Ephesians 2-18)

I don't know about you but when I read short verses like that, I can tend to just speed right by it and keep reading. However, there is so much power in that one little verse if we will slow down and notice the truth we find. In the verse before it speaks about those that are near to God or those that are far away, and that both groups are able to have access to the Father.

How do we have that access? It is through Christ's sinless life, death, burial and resurrection. It is by the Spirit of God who indwells us at the moment of salvation. In this one verse we see how the trinity is actively involved not just in our salvation but in our everyday Christian life. The access we are granted, through grace, is into the presence of the Father which we experience in prayer as well as everyday relationship with him.
