a note from the pastor

What's stopping us?

As Christians, we know that we are called to be witness for Christ "unto the uttermost part of the earth." (Acts 1:8) But sometimes we can be like Jonah and run the other way from a gospel conversation. What is it that's stopping us? Is it fear of not knowing what to say, fear of rejection from a friend, or is it something else?

In Mark 2:1-12, we read a story of four friends who bring their paralytic friend to Jesus for healing. When they got there, the house was so full that there wasn't even a way to get in the door. This did not stop them. We read that they climbed to the top of the house and uncovered the roof to lower their friend into the house. They would let nothing stop them from getting their friend to Jesus. Why? Because they had faith.

We should have the same faith when it comes to sharing the gospel. We should not let anything stop us because we know we are not saving them. We just have to get them to the One who can.
