God and His righteousness,
and all these things will be given to you as well.

a note from the pastor

Look the part....

That has been said of many Christians walking through the doors of American churches over and over again! We come in and "look" like a Christian.

We know when to stand and sing, when to say "amen" and when to even bow our heads in "prayer." We are very good at looking the part, which reminds me of a verse from 2 Timothy that always gives me the chills.

"They will act religious, but they will reject the power that could make them godly. (NLT)"

So how do we keep from just "acting religious?" Paul tells us later in the chapter (verses 12-17) to learn from his testimony and the Word of God. The Word leads us to salvation, instructs us in godly living and leads us to good works. Those that act the part, by their actions, deny the very power they claim to possess. However by the work of the Spirit through the Word of God we can display the evident relationship we have with Christ. Enjoy being real this week!
