a note from the pastor

When the burdens are great...

"Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee..." (Psalm 55:22)

What burdens you? What are the weights that you are trying to carry through your day that seem to be weighing you down? We all have them, because that's real life. However, just because you have weights placed on you in this world, doesn't mean you carry those alone.

David tells us in Psalms 55 that when we cast our burdens on God, he will not reject us, but sustain us. That word "sustain" means to "support or endure". One author said it well when they said, "God invites us to burden him, with what burdens us." I also love how the Message paraphrase starts vs. 22, "Pile your troubles on God's shoulders; he'll carry your load." Stop carrying those weights alone, give them to the Lord and he will strengthen you!

God, loves others and loves to serve."

“Why do bad things happen to good people?”

This is easily the most asked question about God and the Christian faith.

Yet there is no better man to provide an answer than Job. The Bible recognizes Job as an upright, righteous man, yet he suffered a number of traumatic events instigated by Satan but allowed by God. After reading only the first chapter of his book many are left confused about God’s justice given the evidence that Job was a very righteous man.

As followers of Jesus, we were never promised a life without suffering or hardship. In addition, one could argue that followership is a guarantee that we will encounter trials and tribulations along the way. James 1:2 supports this perspective as the author writes: “Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds.”
