a note from the pastor

The highest pursuit...

"Wisdom is the principle thing, therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding." (Proverbs 4:7)

This truth is similar to the encouragement from Proverbs 1:7 and the admonition is to obtain wisdom, to seek after it. Why? Because it is the principle or highest thing and worth the pursuit. However, wisdom is not just gaining of information but applying our knowledge of God and his word to see a difference in our lives.

I like how the NLT translates this verse as well when it says, "Getting wisdom is the wisest thing you can do! And whatever else you do, develop good judgment." The idea at the end of this verse is that whatever it may cost you, it is worth the cost to develop or get understanding. The cost involved is primarily found in surrendering to the Lord, humbling ourselves and leaning not on our own understanding but trusting in his providential leading. This will lead to us gaining wisdom of the Lord, which blesses us and glorifies him!

“Why do bad things happen to good people?”

This is easily the most asked question about God and the Christian faith.

Yet there is no better man to provide an answer than Job. The Bible recognizes Job as an upright, righteous man, yet he suffered a number of traumatic events instigated by Satan but allowed by God. After reading only the first chapter of his book many are left confused about God’s justice given the evidence that Job was a very righteous man.

As followers of Jesus, we were never promised a life without suffering or hardship. In addition, one could argue that followership is a guarantee that we will encounter trials and tribulations along the way. James 1:2 supports this perspective as the author writes: “Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds.”
